

Amee Seba Orton

Aseb.ort@littleastonlawltd.com

Education: BSc (Hons) Honorary lecturer on MSc,

Birmingham University

I specialise in wills and probate/inheritance disputes, acting for personal representatives and trustees, beneficiaries and claimants. I specialise also in property ownership disputes.

I am a barrister of 20 years having practiced in common and family law with particular interest in finances and property disputes. I am also a mediator and arbitrator. I am a practical problem solver to assist parties to resolve their disputes as efficiently as possible and be able to move on with their lives.

Area of Law

Property

I am a specialist in property disputes between co-owners, cohabitants and family members.

Wills and Probate

I have practiced in wills and probate through my career of 20 years.

I have dealt with many cases in court, mediations and have advised clients in conferences and in writing.

I am also a mediator and arbitrator.

I am a member of the Chancery Bar Association and the Association of Contentious Trusts and Probate Specialists (ACTAPS).

What sort of work do I do?

Probate disputes including validity of wills.

Inheritance (Provision for Family & Dependents) Act 1975 claims.

Mental Capacity Act 2005/ Court of Protection - property and financial affairs matters.

Administration of wills and trusts disputes.

Property ownership disputes and claims under the Trusts of Land & Appointment of Trustees Act 1996.

Who do I work for?

Personal representatives, trustees, beneficiaries, potential claimants for financial awards, property owners such as cohabitants or family members.

Attorneys and deputies and patients in the Court of Protection.